WHITNEY MUSEUM
OF AMERICAN ART

10 WEST EIGHTH STREET · NEW YORK

F O R E W O R D

THE WHITNEY MUSEUM OF AMERICAN ART in holding its Second Biennial Exhibition of Contemporary American Sculpture, Watercolors and Prints, has departed from its original plan inaugurated in 1932 by dividing the exhibition into two consecutive parts. The first of these, held from January 14th to February 13th, was devoted to sculpture, drawings and prints; the second and present exhibition is comprised of works in watercolor, gouache and pastel. This division of the exhibition has made it possible to include two hundred and eight works in the present showing, which is an increase of eighty-four over the first watercolor exhibition.

The Museum has at its disposal the sum of twenty thousand dollars which may be expended for the acquisition of works of outstanding excellence from the exhibition, including Parts I and II.

We believe that the exhibition represents in a broad way the most notable characteristics of American painting in watercolor and pastel media of today. Our thanks are extended to the exhibiting artists for their generous co-operation.

NOTE:

MOST OF THE WORKS IN THIS
EXHIBITION ARE FOR SALE. FOR PRICES
AND INFORMATION, VISITORS ARE REQUESTED TO INQUIRE AT THE
INFORMATION DESK. NO COMMISSION
IS CHARGED BY THE MUSEUM ON SALES MADE.
